

COME OUT OF HER MY PEOPLE

Many years ago, as a storm was about to make landfall, a group of people were preparing to have a "hurricane party" in an apartment less than 250 feet from the ocean surf. It was after dark and the wind was howling, when the Police Chief pulled up. "You all need to clear out of here as quickly as you can. The storm's getting worse," the chief warned. But they just laughed at him.

One even told him, "This is my land. If you want me off, you'll have to arrest me."

So despite his warning the police chief left without having convinced any to evacuate. That night the storm hit with 205 mile-per-hour winds. The waves off the coast crested between 22 and 28 feet high. When the storm was over nothing was left of the 3-story structure except the foundation. The only survivor was a 5 year-old boy.

Those 20 or so people who scorned the warning died in the calamity. In like manner, God has called us to come out and be separate from the world's sinful practices (2 Cor. 6:17).

ARE YOU HEEDING THE WARNING?

Homemade Fudgesicles (for the kids)

- 1/4 Cup Organic Butter or Coconut oil (I use Coconut oil)
- 1/2 Cup Organic Whole Wheat Flour
- 3 Cups Organic Soymilk or nutmilk
- 1 (13.66 FL OZ) Can of Organic Coconut milk
- 1 and 1/3 Cup Sucanat or Organic Brown sugar (I use Sucanat)
- 1/3 cup roasted Carob powder
- 1 tsp Sea salt

Melt butter. Stir in flour, gradually add soymilk. Add remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil. Cook and stir 2 min or until thickened. Remove from heat. Cool. Pour into molds and freeze overnight.

THE BREAD OF DEATH

In 1631 printers in England accidentally left out the word “not” from the seventh commandment in a Bible now known as the Wicked Bible. It then read, “Thou shalt commit adultery.” The printers were fined £300 ($454.91 US Dollars), and deprived of their printing license, and the majority of the copies were immediately cancelled and burned.

Unfortunately, this terrible mistake in printing was not the last one to be found in a Bible. Today there are hundreds of so-called “bibles” that contain numerous errors.

In Deuteronomy, the Bible commands us not to add or subtract from it, “Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.” Deuteronomy 4:2. Yet today many seem to ignore this command.

Take for instance, the new Queen James Bible, also known as the Gay Bible. Though similar in most places to the KJV, it alters the texts pertaining to homosexuality “to prevent homophobic misinterpretation,” according to the first page of the QJV.

In Romans 1:26, 27 the King James reads the following, “For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.”

In the Queen James it is altered to place the fault on idolatry rather than homosexuality. “Their women did change their natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, left of the natural use of the woman, burned in ritual lust, one toward another; Men with men working that which is pagan and unseemly. For this cause God gave the idolators up unto vile affections, receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.”

Another modern text of “scripture” is the Book of Yeezus, subtitled “A Bible for the modern day.” The book, containing the book of Genesis, replaces the word “God” with “Kanye” for Kanye West, a rapper. A news source states the following, “The holy book's Genesis has been reworked for a ‘modern day Bible’ dubbed The Book of Yeezus and believe it or not, every mention of God has been changed to the rapper's name.”

<http://www.independent.co.uk/news/people/gods-name-replaced-by-kanye-west-in-book-of-yeezus-bible-10157263.html>

Thus, in this blasphemous version, Genesis 1:1 reads, “In the beginning Kanye created the heaven and the earth.”

These are just two of the most blatant errors found in modern English versions of the Bible.

However, the errors found in Bibles do not stay with the English language. According to an Indonesian missionary (who has been working in the country since the 70s), The Indonesian Literal Translation, an Indonesian Bible, translates John 3:16 as the following, “*Because God so loved this world, that he awarded his only Son to people of a lower status, so that each person which believes in him will not be destroyed, but can earn eternal life by working for it.” Thus, this translation says we can earn eternal life; we are saved by works not grace. This is an erroneous teaching for the Bible plainly states; “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.” Ephesians 2:8, 9

Obviously, all books that call themselves “scripture” don’t say the same thing, which causes Babylonian confusion.

The famous preacher Charles Spurgeon declared, "All alterations and amendments of the Lord's own Word are defilements and pollutions." Yet, many today declare that it doesn't matter, all versions say the same thing.

Yet God's true preserved Word tells us,

"For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." Revelation 22:18, 19

"And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen...And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Revelation 18:2, 4

BLIND LANDING

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16

An aviation cadet, on a practice flight, temporarily stricken blind, in panic radioed that message to his control officer. This officer radioed back, "Follow my instructions implicitly." After keeping the blinded cadet circling the landing field until the whole field was cleared and an ambulance had arrived, the control officer radioed, "Now lose altitude." "Now bank sharply." "You're coming onto the field now." The cadet brought his plane to a perfect landing, was saved, and later his sight was restored.

The children of Israel also had a life or death decision of obedience when they were told to apply the lamb's blood to their doorposts. If no blood was found on the doorposts, the firstborn son would die.

The lamb's blood was a symbol of Christ's blood, since Christ is the Lamb of God (John 1:36). Christ's blood is the only way to escape the eternal death caused by sin. "In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:" Colossians 1:14

Is the blood of Christ applied to the doorposts of your heart? Have you accepted him as your personal Saviour? He is the only way to a have a safe landing in the Kingdom of God.

BABYLON IS FALLEN

"Babylon is fallen,"
The mighty angel cries;
"Come out of her my people,"
Do not believe her lies."

Come out of all her pomp and pride,
Her sorceries, her greed;
Run to her Mighty Conqueror,
For He is all you need.

He offers a better way for you,
A way of truth and life;
So flee the sins of Babylon;
Leave false doctrines causing strife.

Flee from the confusion of Babylon,
Corruptions, idolatry.
Instead declare the Prince of Peace
Your leader, forever to be.

--S. Roberts

GOD'S AMAZING CREATURES

Dragonflies are found on every continent except Antarctica. In flight, the adult dragonfly can propel itself in six directions: upward, downward, forward, back, to left and to right. Dragonflies have a maximum speed of 22-34 miles per hour. Although dragonflies are swift fliers, there are enemies fast enough to catch them. These include falcons such as the American kestrel, nighthawks, swifts, flycatchers, swallows and others. Dragonflies eat mosquitoes, butterflies, moths, damselflies and smaller dragonflies. Dragonflies are fun to watch. I'm glad Jesus made the dragonflies. Aren't you?

Christian was playing in the tall grass when his mother called him. He came quickly to his mother. Christian's mother was happy that he had obeyed so quickly. Jesus was happy too.

Carnal didn't come when his mother called because he wanted to get to the big tree first. He ran into a patch of stinging nettle and was stung. Carnal cried because the stinging nettle hurt him.

Characteristics of Babylon

1. Babylon has a pride problem. Revelation 18:7 "How much she hath _____ herself..." Jeremiah 50:31 "Behold, I am against thee, O thou most _____, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee."
2. Corrupts the nations. Uses witchcraft to deceive. Revelation 17:2 "With whom the _____ of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication." Revelation 18:23 "...for by thy _____ were all nations deceived."
3. Contains EVERYTHING that is evil. Revelation 18:2 "And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of _____ foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird." Revelation 18:5 "For her _____ have reached unto heaven..."
4. The center of the world's merchandise. Revelation 18:3 "... the _____ of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies." (Rev. 18:11-15)
5. Contains blood of all and kills God's people. Revelation 18:24 "And in her was found _____ of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth."

THE CHEMO-MONSTER STRIKES AGAIN

I knew that the chemo would poison my son unless God saw fit to miraculously protect him. We protested, but they said the state would take our son away and give him the chemo anyway. So to protect his 3 siblings, Trenton stayed and took the poison that would eventually rise up and kill him 5 months post-hospital, torturing him with a weak heart, blindness, hearing loss, burning and vomiting that would give the rest of us nightmares for years--- and not just at night.

A hand that has had chemo spilled on it

We are fast learning that secondhand chemo, just like secondhand cigarette smoke, is just as toxic and a nightmare even in the daytime as firsthand chemo. In the 2 ½ years following Trenton's chemo, our once healthy family, especially those of us that gave Trenton hydrotherapy treatments or washed his laundry by hand after the "chemo precautions" were over, has experienced multiple late effects of secondhand chemo. Trenton received enough chemo to "kill" him at least four times. (AML patients receive some of the highest doses of chemo.) He would have died each of those times without upwards of 75 blood transfusions that were given to him throughout his 5 month stay. Now at least 2 more of us have almost died from the chemo that was forced on him. The high doses that we received secondhand were likely as much as a breast cancer patient may receive in total. As we traced out symptoms of things like radiation recall dermatitis, mental fog, and adrenal exhaustion to find out their cause, we traced the trail of a chemo-monster we thought we had left in the past-- and we are not alone. One woman writes, "I was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia in March 2013. It was during my hospitalization in March of this year that one of the younger doctors mentioned it is quite possible my leukemia came from exposure to my husband's chemotherapy drugs. I was stunned. Then I noticed the precautions the nurses who were caring for me were taking when they had to empty my urine to measure the output. They double gloved and wore masks before entering my bathroom to empty the 'hat'. One nurse told me she holds her breath the whole time she is in there. Pregnant nurses were not allowed anywhere near my bathroom. No one was permitted to use my toilet except me." <https://www.inspire.com/groups/bladder-cancer-advocacy-network/discussion/second-hand-chemo/>

In the hospital they acknowledge that patients and their body fluids are toxic for the first 48 hours after chemo (although nobody told us not to use that toilet). All the nurses wear special blue gloves (regular gloves are not strong enough) and gown up when they are dealing with patients. You can smell the chemo when you walk in. It has a very distinctive odor. But somehow most families, including ours, don't really understand how toxic chemo is or that they are getting chemo secondhand. Warnings state that "Chemotherapy is considered a hazardous waste. • Keep containers used for 'Hazardous Waste' away from children, pets, and food." <http://chemocare.com/chemotherapy/side-effects/chemotherapy-safety.aspx>

But do we consider the fact that the people who have been given chemo are themselves now "hazardous waste containers" that family members, including children, will inevitably come in contact with? The patients and what they touch are toxic for much longer than the admitted 48 to 72 hours. One study found, "Once surfaces are exposed to the drugs, they can remain contaminated for months"

http://www.mlive.com/living/kalamazoo/index.ssf/2010/07/health\_workers\_fear\_the\_danger.html

In fact, “A just-completed study from the U.S. Centers for Disease Control, 10 years in the making and the largest to date, confirms that chemo continues to contaminate the work spaces where it’s used, and in some cases is still being found in the urine of those who handle it, despite knowledge of safety precautions.” <http://www.invw.org/chemo-workers>

“Chemotherapy agents, when dispersed in the air, or onto surfaces, are invisible, difficult to clean, long-lasting, easily spread, and capable of causing genetic damage. They’ve been found on the outsides of the drug vials shipped from manufacturers, on floors and countertops, on keyboards, and garbage cans and door knobs.” <http://www.fairwarning.org/2010/07/health-care-workers-risk-secondhand-chemo/>

Even Medscape admits, “Exposure to ‘secondhand chemo’ can confer significant health risks, such as immediate nervous system effects, acute and long-term reproductive effects (e.g., infertility and miscarriage), and a subsequent risk for hematologic malignancies.[blood cancers]” ...“Working with or near hazardous drugs in health care settings may cause skin rashes, infertility, miscarriage, birth defects, and possibly leukemia or other cancers.” <http://www.medscape.com/viewarticle/748631>

So while chemo failed miserably to “cure” Trenton’s leukemia, it instead significantly increased the risk for the rest of the family to get leukemia, as well as offering a cocktail of the other not so publicized negative late effects of chemo. (Yes, anything they can get firsthand, you may also get secondhand.) According to the Mayo Clinic, “Some late side effects experienced by childhood cancer survivors include:

●Heart problems, including an increased risk of heart attacks ● Blood vessel problems, including an increased risk of stroke ●Lung problems, which can cause difficulty breathing ●Liver problems ●Kidney problems ●Bone problems, such as bone thinning (osteoporosis) and joint pain ●Short stature, caused by slow bone growth ●Obesity ●Infertility ●Memory problems and learning disabilities ●Vision loss ●Hearing loss ●Increased risk of other types of cancers ●Nerve damage” <http://www.mayoclinic.org/diseases-conditions/cancer/expert-blog/childhood-cancer-survivors/bgp-20056428>

We would like to send out the warning to other families and caregivers encountering chemo, that we have experience that secondhand chemo can cause hair loss, nail loss, radiation recall dermatitis, adrenal exhaustion, chemo brain, swelling and boils, hearing loss, digestive disruptions, swallowing difficulties, blood clotting problems, and much more. It is like a “seed crop” that never loses its destroying properties. I couldn’t state it better than this writer has in speaking of pharmaceuticals: “Man is God’s property, and the ruin that has been made of the living habitation, the suffering caused by the seeds of death sown in the human system, are an offense to God.” {Medical Ministry 229}

We are convinced that Satan is still telling people “Ye shall not surely die.”(Gen. 3:4) as he gleefully hands them his poisonous remedies. And so Jesus lovingly calls today “Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues. For by {her} sorceries [Greek pharmakeia = medication (“pharmacy”)--Strong’s Concordance] were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.” Rev 18:4, 23b--24 ...If we’d learn to do it better, we would always use God’s way-- FIRST.
